ADMIRALTY Nautical Products & Services

Living with ECDIS Seminar Istanbul, Turkey. Wednesday 21 October, 10.30–14.00

This free seminar from the United Kingdom Hydrographic Office will cover the ongoing requirements following on from implementation and focus on what needs to be done to ensure the navigational benefits of ECDIS are achieved.

Living with ECDIS goes beyond compliance. ECDIS is capable of providing increased safety, improved spatial awareness, integrated supplementary information and automatic chart updates.

The responsibilities of the shipping company will be highlighted and discussed with the audience. Questions and comments are encouraged upon registration and throughout the day to make the seminar interactive.

Captain Paul Halkiwood will draw on his extensive experience with assisting shipping companies with the adoption and ongoing management of ECDIS alongside Tom Mellor – UKHO Head of Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM) Support and Digital Standards.

Tom Mellor is also the Chairman of the ENC Working Group that develops standards on behalf of the IHO and will cover how the Latest IHO ECDIS Standards directly impact the ECDIS user-experience.
